A MISTAKE.

To the Editor of the Times.

Devon Mission, 7th Nov., 1891.

DEAR SIR,—In your issue of Sept. 2nd I noticed a statement to the effect that I had been appointed "Rural Dean of Cumberland." I write now to correct what I presume to be a mistake. My reasons for thinking the insertion a mistake are these: 1st. Up to the date of writing this, no intimation of such an appointment has reached me from the Bishop of Saskatchewan. 2nd. The Rev. Mr. McLennan was appointed Rural Dean of Cumberland by the late Bishop about six years ago.

It is true Mr. McLennan no longer resides in this district, having been removed to Stanley, about 200 miles away, but I can't see why this removal should necessitate his losing the title of Rural Dean of Cumberland, any more than the removal of Rev. George McKay "Archdeacon of Alberta" from Alberta to Prince Albert, should necessitate his giving up the title of Archdeacon. Of course I do not presume to understand these things, anything that lacks consistency seems to be either above or beneath my comprehension.

I am, Yours truly,

JOHN HINES.

[Along with other matters published in our issue of September 2nd, the information referred to by our correspondent was handed into us by the secretary of the Synod meeting held just previous to that date.—Ed.]

"THE WAY IT IS DONE."

To the Editor of the Times.

SIR,—In THE TIMES of Nov. 11th, under the above heading, "Pahonan" makes some statements which to say the least are misleading, and as they reflect on myself, and would imply that the business of the H. B. Company at Fort la Corne was neglected in order to further the interests of Mr. Turner in the late contest, allow me through your columns in justice to myself to tell "Pahonan" he is mistaken, as I can satisfy my superiors that though I did support Mr. Turner, yet the interests of the business were in no way interfered with.

The work and energy displayed in this little corner of the district by the supporters of Mr. Betts, was truly energetic, but apparently of no use from past results, and "Pahonan" evidently a "paid agent" conscious of having done his utmost and to no purpose, deems it necessary to make an explanation at the expense of his neighbors, which I trust your readers have accepted for what it is worth.

ANGUS MCKAY.

Fort la Corne, Nov. 27th, 1891.

THE CURLING CLUB.

The annual meeting of the Saskatchewan Curling Club was held in the secretary's office on the 24th inst. There was a very good attendance of members present. The friends of the club having got behind the "hog" score, it was decided to hold a couple of entertainments during the season and endeavor to "scop" up to the "pot lid" once more. The president, vice-president and Mayor Johnson were appointed as a committee for the getting up of these entertainments, and we feel confident that under the management of these gentlemen success will be assured. The election of officers resulted as follows:—T. N. Campbell, President; Grahame Neilson, Vice President; Alex. Stevens, Secretary-Treasurer. Committee—George T. Brown, R. Gwynne and H. J. Starforth. Chaplain, Ven. Archdeacon Geo. McKay. Representatives—D. H. Macdonald, M. P., and J. F. Betts, M.L.A. Already the committee have got to work, and the ice will soon be in readiness for curling. The annual fee has been placed at $7.

Old and new members should hand in their names to the secretary at once.

THE MASSACRE OF CHRISTIANS IN CHINA.

Horrible details have been received of a massacre of Belgian missionaries and native Christians at Tayou and Sanchi by the Chinese. The Christians were attacked without warning, and had no chance to escape. A Belgian priest was brained at a blow. A number of nuns were also killed. The native Christians were treated even more horribly. They were not permitted to meet a swift death. The miscreants seized the converts who had fled in vain to the mission and subjected them to fearful tortures. The children were seized and some hacked to pieces, and others roasted alive before the eyes of their agonized parents. Then the parents were taken and treated with a refinement of cruelty that only Chinese understand. After suffering various tortures such as still lived were slaughtered.

The mandarins seem either to have favored the rioters or to have been overcome with fear. Instead of attempting to suppress their violence, or protesting against it, they welcomed the murderers, red-handed from the slaughter, and spread a feast and held a fete in their honor. It would be hard to depict the feeling of Europeans in Shanghai and other places at the relation of these horrors. They are not angry simply, they are furious, and there is a loud and universal demand from all foreigners for a punishment that will bring the Chinese to their senses and impress a lasting lesson on them.

GENERAL NEWS.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 28.—There is likely to be a serious dispute over the boundary between the United States and British Columbia. A strip of thirty miles forming a portion of the state of Washington, and in which is situated a large portion of the town of Blaine, is claimed by the Dominion. The treaty provides that the line shall follow the forty-ninth parallel, and in 1860 the boundary was marked by commissioners of the two countries. When they reached the point of difference the British commissioners found a line and the Americans found another further south. The latter yielded, and the present line was established. The British commissioners afterward claimed that their instrument had become de-ranged.

Halifax, Nov. 29.—E. C. Bowers, M. P., (Liberal) for Digby, has acknowledged corrupt acts by agents in his election and vacated his seat. Charges of personal bribery will not be raised.

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—Mr. Perley, chief engineer of the Public Works, has suffered a relapse. His condition is considered critical.

Thomas McGreevy, M. Connolly, N. Connolly and Chas. Fitzpatrick, Q.C., arrived here this afternoon.

James McLaren, lumberman and president of the Bank of Ottawa, is seriously ill. His condition is precarious.

The Government has decided to again call for tenders for a fast Atlantic steamship service.

Civil servants are to be deprived of the privilege of franking their private correspondence.

It is proposed to submit to the Privy Council in England the question as to whether Newfoundland's action in prohibiting Canadian vessels from buying bait is unconstitutional.

Montreal, Nov. 29.—It is reported here that the Montreal Herald is about to come into the control of Sir Richard Cartwright, and that it will be continued under new and vigorous management.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—It is announced that a syndicate of English capitalists, which recently obtained control of the Dominion Brewing company, of this city, have got hold of three other Toronto brewing companies, which are to be consolidated under one head.

Port Elgin, Nov. 29.—Dugald Bell, one of the earliest settlers in Saugeen township is dead.

THE HUDSON'S BAY CO.'S EAST AND WEST END STORES

YOU CAN FIND OUT IF THIS BE TRUE.

Five dollars' worth for fifty cents is an unusual offer, yet it is a house file one. While traveling in Germany, Mr. Edmund E. Sheppard, editor of Toronto Saturday Night, saw in the principal art stores a magnificent photograph 20 x 25 inches in size, printed in twenty-one different colors and tones of oil—what is really a factory made oil painting of the highest class, not a chromo. After obtaining the address of the art association which issued it, he visited their manufactory in Berlin and made arrangements for a Canadian edition to accompany the Christmas Number of Toronto Saturday Night. The subject of this beautiful picture is Fatima, the daughter of Mahomet. Only one thousand copies had been printed and these were sold at twenty marks ($5.00) each. The firm had paid the artist, one of the most distinguished portrait painters in Europe, five thousand marks for the privilege of reproducing this picture, and the sale in Germany had been limited to one thousand copies, yet the picture which will be presented in Look's is identical with it, printed on the finest paper in twenty-one different colored oils, embossed, and varnished ready for framing and needing neither glass nor frame. The back of the picture is, it is almost identical with the painting mounted on canvas. The picture represents an oriental beauty remarkably like Fatima, and is unequalled by anything that has ever been produced by any newspaper in the world. Who you see this picture hanging in a news store together with the periodical supplements given by the English illustrated papers, you will at once admit that even the great London publications are not in competition with our own Saturday Night. The Christmas Number of Saturday Night contains four pages beautifully illustrated, printed on fine paper, and is a marvel of typographical art. A large amount of money has been paid for prize stories, poems and photographs. The stories have been illustrated by the best Canadian artists and every page contains something pleasing to the eye. The publishers of Saturday Night never indulge in jokes of any kind. It is their aim to make their Christmas issue an advertisement which is certain to attract readers to their regular issue. Perhaps you do not read Saturday Night. It is a twelve page paper, always well illustrated and attractively wears the handsomest dress of any paper in the Dominion. All the good things from the American and English and German comic papers are reproduced, but jokes and pictures. The faces of foreign celebrities, authors, statesmen and actors appear in its columns. It pays more money for the copyright stories of leading English authors than all the other Canadian papers combined. It is thoroughly clean and has the largest and ablest editorial staff of any weekly paper in Canada. Its large circulation and magnificent advertising patronage alone make it a possibility in a country like Canada where at best there is but a limited patronage. The Christmas Number and the regular issue of Toronto Saturday Night are for sale by all newsagents. The price of the former is fifty cents, including the picture Fatima; the latter is two dollars per annum—new dollars and fifty cents for both. You cannot get better than subscribe either directly to the Sheppard Publishing Company, 112 Adelaide Street, West, or through your news agent.

SASKATOON.

Our late agent, Mr. H. Simpson, left here last Monday to take his old sit at Regina. He is relieved by Mr. A. E. St. Laurent who has been appointed permanent. Mr. R. W. Finlayson of Snake Plain, is in town, he will take up his residence here for a while. Mr. G. Voyer has been appointed Government telegraph service sub-agent here. Inspector Huot, of the N.W.M.P., paid a flying visit to our town last Monday. Hope we will see you often now old boy. D. Garrison was married last Monday to Miss Levine of this town. May your troubles be all little ones Dan. The boys met at the Queen's Hotel last Monday night, and spent a most pleasant evening, music and singing of a high order was well rendered by a few of the leading talent of the town. Mr. J. Hessewood, superintendent of the B. & N. department of the C. P. R., spent a few days in town this week, looking after the interests of his department.

DUCK LAKE.

On Monday of last week our late C. P. R. agent, Mr. St. Laurent, took his departure from here to Saskatoon. During his stay here of over eight months, he has made many very warm friends and all wish him success in his new position which is said to be a promotion. What is our loss is Saskatoon's gain. Our mill will commence running on Monday next. For the time being it will be run solely in the interest of the Indians. Thrashing is about finished on the reserves and some wonderful yields are reported. One Indian on John Smith's reserve got 375 bushels from 175 bushels of seed, another here getting 37 bushels to the acre, and altogether the average will be over 20 bushels to the acre. The Department is to be congratulated on having such able instructions. Cap. Hoy was in town last week getting repairs for his new threshing which came to grief a few days ago. He also reports more than ordinary averages in this season's crops. Large quantities of furs are coming in. Both the H. B. Co. and Stokarts' report taking in over $200 in a day. Mr. Adams has taken up his residence in town. A week ago the Rev. Dr. Jardine delivered his lecture on "Our Country." Very few were aware of his coming, hence a very poor attendance. The address was very interesting, and all expressed themselves as more than pleased. Mr. Utton has been appointed agent here for the C. P. R.

The neatest thing in holiday cards we have yet seen are to be found at Mr. Cann's bookstore. On each of these cards is a small photo view taken from different points in the town by Steele & Wing. They will make a handsome present to send to friends at a distance during the coming holidays.

The H. B. Co.'s grist mill is being run for all it is worth this year, and as fast as the flour can be turned out it is hauled away, the demand is so great. The cause of this is the excellent quality of flour they are turning out. In the opinion of bakers and other competent judges their roller process grade cannot be excelled, while the strong bakers is superior to any of the imported article of the same grade. Nothing but the best wheat is being used, consequently nothing but the best brands of flour are being turned out.

The supply of firewood in the town is getting very low. Now that the ice on the river is firm and sleighing good, the wood contractors should be commencing operations. There will have to be considerable settling up of last year's permits before the business is in full swing.

The first of the Saskatchewan Hall assemblies will take place in the hall on Thursday, 10th December. Dancing to commence at 8 o'clock, lunch at 12. Music will be furnished by the Saskatchewan Hall band. Tickets for gentlemen, $1. Ladies free. Tickets for sale at W. R. Fish's and E. J. Cann's.

By buying your goods from F. C. Baker, you get for your money a large Art Photo of Niagara Falls.

The announcement by the publishers of the Dominion Illustrated that they would this year issue a Christmas Number more beautiful and valuable than even their own last year's issue has been followed by a rush of orders from every portion of the Dominion. This number will be purely a Canadian work in the fullest sense, and as a souvenir to send to absent friends will not be surpassed; while its literary merit and artistic beauty combined with the magnificent special supplements will render it a welcome and a charming visitor in every home from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

THE CONCERT.

As advertised, the Dramatic Club of F Division gave a concert at the Barracks on Friday evening last. A capital programme had been prepared, but owing to different causes some of those who were to have taken part were unable to attend, their places having to be taken by others on short notice and without time for preparation. The attendance, we regret to say, was much smaller than usual or what it should have been, considering the time spent by the ladies and gentlemen who took part in preparation. Whether the small attendance was owing to the weather, the distance and trouble of getting there or the price of a mission we are unable to say, but are inclined to attribute it to the latter cause, as we fancy more popular prices would attract a larger audience. The concert was opened with an instrumental piece by Mrs. Rochester, which was rendered in a manner that proved this lady to be a fine pianist. Next came a song from Const. Conway, then a reading by Const. Thompson, during which the band played Annie Laurie, which was followed by songs from Sgt. Blund and Const. Beeby. Mrs. Porter and Messrs. McKay and W. on the piano, cornet and violin, treated the audience to a couple of well rendered selections. Mrs. Porter's playing is two well known in Prince Albert to require comment, while Mr. Way quite excelled any former efforts. It was Mr. McKay's first appearance, and with his new silver cornet, he kept up his part of the trio in a creditable manner. A duet was also beautifully sung by Mrs. Rochester and Miss Hill. A reading by Miss Hill drew down the house, it being brimful of fun from start to finish, and given in a manner which showed this young lady to be no novice in the art of elocution. Const. Tessie gave a couple of well selected songs during the evening, in which he done credit both to himself and the pieces he sang. A tableau by members of the troop brought the entertainment to a close.

"August Flower"

How does he feel?—He feels blue, a deep, dark, unfading, dyed-in-the-wool, eternal blue, and he makes everybody feel the same way—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels a headache, generally dull and constant, but sometimes excruciating—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels a violent hiccupping or jumping of the stomach after a meal, raising bitter-tasting matter or what he has eaten or drunk—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels the gradual decay of vital power: he feels miserable, melancholy, hopeless, and longs for death and peace—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels so full after eating a meal that he can hardly walk—August Flower the Remedy.
